Parole Board Ruling
Awaited on Rejailing
Four Capone Mobsters

By the Associated Press

An imminent ruling by the Federal Parole Board was awaited today by the congressional committee which recommended tossing back into prison four one-time members of the "Capone mob."

A spokesman for the House Expenditures Committee said no further congressional action is contemplated "at this time."

The committee said in a formal report late yesterday that Louis Campagna, Charles Gioe, Philip D'Andrea and Paul Delucia, alias Ricca, should resume serving their 10-year sentences for violating anti-racketeering laws.

The four were paroled last August after having served three and one-half years. They were convicted in New York in 1944 of conspiracy to extort $1,000,000 from the movie industry by threats of labor strife and violence.

Picked Up in Chicago.

Delucia, known also as "the Walzer," was picked up yesterday in Chicago for parole violation on a warrant issued by the Federal Parole Board. The Government said he failed to make "full and truthful written reports" to the parole supervisor.

Several hours after his arrest Delucia was released on $10,000 bail on a habeas corpus writ pending a hearing July 8. One of the charges that led to his arrest was a Government claim that he had failed to report a $16,000 expenditure, including $4,000 for champagne, for his daughter's wedding reception last January.

Last week the Expenditures Committee, headed by Representative Hoffman, Republican, of Michigan, was promised by the Federal Parole Board that it would decide not later than this Saturday whether to revoke the paroles of all four men.

In its report based on hearings conducted by Mr. Hoffman here and in Chicago, the committee said the paroles were "imprudently granted" and ought to be revoked because of "fraudulent concealment of the facts."

"Large Sums of Money Paid."

"Large sums of money were paid to obtain the granting of these paroles," the committee said. It added it has been unable to find out where the money came from, but "there is no evidence that any portion of

2 Boys Attack Hacker, Flee, Leaving a 'Tip' of $9.40

A blow on the head and a $9.40 "tip" constituted the mixed reward Raymond H. Bukovac, 25-year-old taxicab driver, drew last night for a 60-cent run.

Mr. Bukovac, of 2306 First street, N.W. told police he picked up two teen-aged boys at Union Station who directed him to go to Sixteenth and Euclid streets N.W.

At the destination, one boy handed him a $10 bill. The other then hit him on the head with a blunt instrument. Suddenly both of the passengers jumped from the cab and ran.

The driver described the boys as being about 15 and 17 years of age, about 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighing about 125 pounds. They were wearing dark trousers and white shirts, he said.

Bill for New Stamp Passed

By the Associated Press

The House passed and sent to the White House yesterday a resolution authorizing the issuance November 19 of a special three-cent stamp to commemorate the 85th anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

Better School Facilities
Asked in Trinidad Area

The Trinidad Citizens' Association last night authorized Mrs. Julian M. Selby, chairman of the schools committee, to ask the Board of Education for new construction, and improvement for some of the present facilities in the area.

The work to be requested is a new elementary school on the property at Childress street and Mount Olivet road N.E. Improvements desired are for the Wheatley School, Montello avenue and Neal street N.E., and include a full-time clerk for the school, visual instruction equipment and additional physical education equipment.

In further action, the group directed that a letter be written to No. 9 police precinct, requesting more rigid enforcement of the speed limit on M street, between Seventeenth street and Maryland avenue N.E.

The association's last meeting until September was held in the Wheatley School, and was conducted by James Thatcher, sr.
